

Topeka Statehouse

Mr. Duncan in Washington, D.C.

Government Relations

Instrumental decisions are made in Topeka at the Statehouse, and those changes impact corporations and businesses throughout the state. The Duncan Law Office can meet client demands for stronger representation in the state's capital and before a number of state agencies. Mr. Duncan has provided representation in a variety of practices, government contracts, government relations, antitrust, consumer protection matters, and business counseling. In addition, he is recognized for his expertise in campaign and election matters and in beverage alcohol law. Mr. Duncan has interacted extensively with federal and state agencies and practices before federal and appellate courts as well as district courts within Kansas. Representative clients include the Kansas Wine and Spirits Wholesalers Association www.kwswa.org and the Kansas Public Transit Association www.kstransit.com.

For information on the Kansas Legislature go to:
<http://www.kslegislature.org/legsrv-legisportal/index.do>
check out our links page.

To find your Member of Congress, State Representative or State Senator go to:
<http://www.ipsr.ku.edu/ksdata/vote/>
check out our links page.